Lifeline Theatre's Hit "The Count of Monte Cristo" Adds Two Week Extension, November 3 through 13

CHICAGO – To accommodate extraordinary ticket demand, Lifeline Theatre announces ten added performances of its Jeff Recommended, critically acclaimed production of The Count of Monte Cristo, a world premiere adaptation of Alexandre Dumas' legendary novel by Lifeline Theatre ensemble member Christopher M. Walsh, directed by Lifeline Theatre ensemble member Paul S. Holmquist (Non-Equity Jeff Award nominee for Director-Play and Director-Musical). Framed by a conspiracy of three terrible enemies, Edmond Dantès is torn from the woman he loves and wrongly imprisoned for fourteen years. After escaping captivity, he enters the upper reaches of Parisian society under a new name: the Count of Monte Cristo. With the aid of Albert, son of his former fiancée, the Count insinuates himself into the lives of his three tormentors and, one by one, seeks to use their own secrets to destroy them. A dark tale of intrigue and vengeance, in a world premiere adaptation based on the 1844 classic by French novelist Alexandre Dumas (The Three Musketeers, The Man in the Iron Mask). This production runs approximately two and a half hours with one intermission. The book will be on sale in the lobby.

UPDATED CLOSING DATE: The Count of Monte Cristo runs through November 13 at Lifeline Theatre, 6912 N. Glenwood Ave. (free parking and shuttle; see below).
