Lifeline Theatre's "The Picture of Dorian Gray" Adds Two Week Extension Through November 16

WHAT: Lifeline Theatre inaugurates its 26th anniversary MainStage season with the world premiere adaptation of Oscar Wilde's "The Picture of Dorian Gray," adapted by Lifeline ensemble member Robert Kauzlaric, directed by Kevin Theis. What would you do if you had the freedom to indulge your every dark desire? A supernatural power grants Dorian Gray eternal youth and beauty. As the years pass and his outward form remains unmarred, his soul wallows in pride and sin, dragging the lives of everyone he touches into the depths of depravity. Oscar Wilde's tragic masterpiece reveals that even the bravest among us are afraid to face what lies within. The show runs approximately two hours with one intermission, and copies of the book will be on sale in the lobby. On June 9, Lifeline received five Non-Equity Jeff Awards – the most for a single production - from nine nominations for "The Island of Dr. Moreau."

WHERE: Lifeline Theatre, 6912 N. Glenwood Ave., Chicago, IL 60626
Parking available (street and lot – see below); CTA accessible (Red Line Morse stop/buses)

MISSION: Now in its 26th season, Lifeline Theatre is known for specializing in original literary adaptations. Its ensemble of artists uses imaginative, unconventional staging to portray sprawling stories in an intimate space. Lifeline is committed to promoting the arts in its Rogers Park neighborhood and is an anchor of the Glenwood Avenue Arts District. We aspire to create art that is relevant to our culturally diverse, increasingly youthful neighborhood.
